

St. Johnsbury Locals

Dr. and Mrs. Milton S. Rees returned to their home in Rochester, N. Y., early Tuesday morning where Dr. Rees begins this week a series of evangelistic services in that city.

I. G. Marshall is again confined to the house with illness.

Mrs. Margaret N. Heywood returned from Burlington Monday where she went to hear Galli-Curci.

Mrs. Heywood was able to reach Montpelier Sunday and came home Monday on the first train through over the Montpelier and Wells River railroad.

Raymond Pense of the U. S. Marine hospital of New York City is here visiting a few days.

Several of the farmers were able to get into town Monday after feed, although the traveling was very poor.

Miss E. C. Warden, who has been here to see her mother, Mrs. E. B. Warden, returned to Bellows Falls Tuesday.

Mrs. John Beck and son, Andrew, of Winchendon, Mass., who was here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Abbie McCarty left Tuesday for her home.

Miss Stella Davis of Newport was here Tuesday on her way to Lisbon.

Miss Bertha W. of some economics specialist from Burlington will give a demonstration on "Stain Removal" at the Museum, March 12 at 2:30. All who are interested are invited to come.

L. A. Wood, E. H. Hallett, E. C. Chandler left for Boston Monday on business in the interest of the Plymouth Creamery Co.

Ex-Senator Frank Rago of Groton was in town on business Monday.

Miss Mabel L. Spencer went to Newport Monday where she will get as reporter at the March term of Orleans county court which opened Tuesday.

The Ladies' Social of the Universalist church will meet with Mrs. A. W. Babcock, 15 Caledonia street, on Thursday afternoon.

On account of the storm Hennault's orchestra cancelled their dance at Cable Hall Saturday evening. They will give a dance on Saturday evening March 20.

The Mission Circle of the Universalist church will meet with Mrs. Frank A. Scott on Wednesday evening. The watchword is "Courage."

The support for the proposed Community work for St. Johnsbury girls has been so gratifying from the people and concerns of this town that a trained leader has been secured who will begin her work here on April 1.

Ernest Barbieri went to Barre Tuesday.

Miss Louise Wilkie of Woodville was a visitor here Monday.

Mrs. Abbie Colby has gone to the home of her son in West Burke.

E. N. Brunelle was able to leave the St. Johnsbury hospital Tuesday and return to his home.

Sunday the road house to the Danville line was broken out by Albert F. Lawrence and a crew of a dozen men. Mr. Lawrence was able to deliver his milk as usual and Mr. Fleming who could not make his route early in the day came down from Crow Hill later and supplied all his customers.

At the evangelistic services Sunday evening Dr. Rees announced that the prize offered for the best drawing illustrating the children's talk on "The Garden of the Heart," had been awarded to Paul J. Leonard. The prize was an illustrated Testament.

The annual dinner of the Vermont Society of New York will be held at the Pennsylvania Hotel on Saturday evening March 13. The speakers include Gov. Clement and Judge Wendell P. Stafford. George E. Miner, Esq., of Brooklyn, now a prominent lawyer and a former St. Johnsbury boy, is chairman of the executive committee.

Mrs. B. E. Doyle will assist with readings the Universalist church choir in their minstrel show and musical entertainment in the assembly room of the church Thursday evening. The talent includes a chorus of 25 trained voices, four old-time and men in costume of the latest creation, and other features that will make the affair a big show for a small price.

The Outlook Club will hold their "Gentlemen's Night at Grand Army hall on Wednesday evening. There will be a chicken pie supper at 6:30 followed by an entertainment. Members and their families are invited to this annual gathering.

P. F. Hazen is back at his desk again at the scale office after being confined to the house for about a week.

Leland A. Wood, the county agent, is back at his desk again after being confined to the house for over a week.

Mrs. R. D. Skinner has been in Burlington where she was called by the illness of her father.

Miss Madeline Clark is ill at her home on Railroad St.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wheaton are packing their goods and are soon to leave for Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Fred Pope visited friends in Lyndonville the past week.

Miss Margie Clifford spent Sunday in Lyndon.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Southard went to North Haverhill Monday to visit his mother, Mrs. L. J. Southard a few days.

Misses Lola and Marjorie French left Monday for Boston.

There will be a whist party at Elder's Hall, Thursday evening, March 11, given by the Children of Mary Society.

William McFarlin spent Sunday with his family here, coming from Springfield, Vt., where he is working.

Mrs. Altie Ladoo went to Cabot early Monday called by the illness of her children.

Miss Nina Palmer, who has been here visiting her brothers, B. A. and C. E. Palmer, left Monday for her home in Wilder.

Mrs. C. H. Haskell of Norwich has been visiting her daughter, Miss Blanche Haskell.

Raymond Emmons returned to Windsor Monday after a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emmons.

John P. Page left Monday for Lebanon in the interest of the Cross bakery.

Mrs. Harry Blodgett is convalescing from her recent illness.

Miss Mary H. Gint went Monday to Hanover where she has classes in dancing.

Howard Bartlett and Cedric Scott of Dartmouth spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bartlett.

Mrs. William Gibbs and son left for Montpelier Monday.

Henry T. Kidder spent Sunday here and left Monday for White River Junction.

Miss Esther Thresher of Springfield, Mass., is spending a few days with Mrs. George Barrill.

Mrs. J. C. Taylor is slowly convalescing from her recent illness.

Mrs. Ada Dwyer is staying with her sister, Mrs. Edward Higgins, for a while.

James Ritchie of West Barre spent Sunday at Warren Estabrook's home.

John Goudreau was called to Canada Sunday by the illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Flint have reached Houston, Texas, and write that they have forgotten all about the snow in Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson returned Sunday from their trip to California.

The annual meeting of the Commercial Club will be held at Pythian Hall on Thursday, March 18. A banquet will be served at 6:30, followed by the business of the occasion. Col. H. J. Hunt, U. S. A., now stationed at Albany, has been invited to speak on some of his army experiences and he will be present if possible. The other speaker will be Col. C. S. Emery of Newport, the first mayor of that city, who will speak on the advantages of a city form of government in a Vermont town.

Eugene Dawson entertained a large number of his friends Friday night in honor of his 16th birthday. A very pleasant evening was spent in music and games and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The Sunday services at St. Andrew's church are as follows: 10:30 a. m., holy communion and sermon; 12, Sunday School; 7 p. m., evensong and third sermon on "The Upper Room."

Mrs. James B. Campbell is visiting at her former home in West Newton, Mass.

Judge Harland B. Howe, District Attorney Bullard and Collector Kennedy gave a dinner at the Sherwood in Burlington at which about 50 prominent democrats in the state were present, St. Johnsbury being represented by Representative Harry W. Witters. The speechmaking which followed was all in the interests of Attorney General Palmer for the democratic candidate for president.

Dr. Milton S. Rees will attend the meeting of the Laymen's League Monday night, leaving for his home in Rochester on the night train.

The Red Cross having finished their sewing and knitting they will hold hereafter only one meeting a month. This will be a business meeting and the first of these meetings will be held on Tuesday, April 6.

Mrs. Clarence Swett gave a linen shower to Miss Winnie Burnham on Friday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Porter was taken to the St. Johnsbury hospital Sunday because of poor health.

The ladies of the Altar Society of St. Aloysius church will give a turkey supper Tuesday evening, March 16, in St. Aloysius hall, in aid of the fund to pay for the church altar. The supper is from 6 to 7:30 p. m.

Lenten service Wednesday evening at 7:30 at St. Andrew's Episcopal church with the sermon by Rev. Robert Bolton, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church at White River Junction.

J. M. Perham went to Burlington to attend the annual meetings of the Vermont Engineers and the Vermont Aero Club.

Mrs. Walter L. Kendall has received word from her sister, Mrs. G. H. Drew, who was operated on at the Deaconess hospital in Boston a few days ago that she is getting along comfortably.

St. Johnsbury's Quota for the W. C. T. U. jubilee drive is $300 and of this amount only $100 has been raised. Any contributions from friends may be sent to Mrs. J. K. Herbert, treasurer, or Mrs. Elsie M. Harvey. It is hoped that this amount will be raised before April 1st.

The street department are handling the snow in the streets as well as they can and the scraper was in use on Railroad street Wednesday loosening up the snow to be carted off later.

The Boston alumni of St. Johnsbury Academy will hold their annual gathering in Boston Friday evening. Gov. Calvin Coolidge will be the guest of the association and Principal Davis of the Academy is planning to attend.

Judge O. C. Woodruff, who is in Meridian, Texas, wrote Sheriff Wilbur Worthen that the peach trees were in bloom and garden truck all up and the thermometer was 76 degrees above and that he had been fishing in the Basque river and in an hour caught two pounds of fish.

Mrs. Lilla Hastings of Concord is here visiting friends.

The many friends of Miss Lizzie Harris will be glad to learn that she is able to sit up from her recent illness.

Mrs. Grace Jenne and son of Windsor is here to see her mother, Mrs. Charles Locke.

Mrs. Augusta Phelps who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Maynard Massey left Wednesday for Brockton to visit her two daughters there.

Mrs. T. E. King was called to Island Pond Tuesday by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Mary Nutt.

Arthur Hoyt of Laconia has been here on business the past few days and calling on old friends.

Mrs. Hazel Pierce who has been here visiting Mrs. Charles Powers, returned to Randolph Wednesday.

Mrs. C. B. Chase is ill at her home at No. 6 Summer street.

Sidney Page is confined to the house by illness.

Mrs. Fred Conley came home Tuesday from St. Albans where she went to see her brother who is sick. She also visited her daughter, Mrs. John Wilkie, in Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clement and Miss Madeline of North Danville visited town Tuesday. Miss Madeline returned to her school.

Mrs. Lawrence Hardy left Wednesday from St. Albans where she went to see her brother who is sick. She also visited her daughter, Mrs. John Wilkie, in Windsor.

Dr. W. H. Merrill and sister, Miss Margaret Merrill, who were called here by the illness of their sister, Mrs. Arthur Sprague left for their home in Washington, D. C., Wednesday. The many friends of Mrs. Sprague are pleased to know that she is better.

Miss Bertha Holder, home economics specialist from Burlington, will give a demonstration on "Stain Removal" at the Museum, March 12, at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry E. Clifford of Corina, Calif., gave a dinner at their home there on Feb. 29 in honor of several Vermont friends. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle B. Smaulding of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Pierce, formerly of Lyndonville, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bond of Albion, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Sprout of Ramona Acres, Calif. On the menu were home cured ripe olives grown by Mr. Clifford in his garden.

Miss Irma King is at her home in Passumpsic for two days.

Mrs. E. W. Sharp went to Milford, N. H., Wednesday to visit her son, Rev. Mason S. Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howes left Wednesday for Williamstown, Mass., for the remainder of the week.

Rev. E. W. Sharp is in Newport this week.

Mrs. Ezra Leonard of St. Johnsbury Center visited here Wednesday.

Mrs. Luce, daughter of J. C. Salina, has returned to her home in Montpelier. Mrs. Frank E. Weizer of Burlington has come to care for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Salina.

Mrs. G. M. Hutchinson left Wednesday for her home in Wilton, N. H.

Mrs. Edmund P. Hamilton left Wednesday for Randolph to visit Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Hamilton the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jackman went to Lisbon Wednesday to visit relatives for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Harris leave Pasadena, Calif., Friday on their way home.

Andrew C. Ritchie of West Barre was here on business Tuesday.

The Brightlook Hospital Aid Association have made arrangements for a children's play to be given sometime in May. The title of the play is "Yaddo" and it will be given under the direction of Mrs. Harry E. Gage who was so successful recently in the production of "Marrying Mary" in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. C. B. Rathbun has opened the Monogram Hat shop at her home at No. 30 Spring Street with a line of spring millinery.

Supreme National Lecturer, Charles E. Whelan of Madison, Wis., and State Deputy George E. Baldwin of the Modern Woodmen of America visited St. Johnsbury camp Tuesday evening at a class initiation. They left for White River Junction Wednesday morning.

Ben. J. Massie has gone to Hardwick to work.

Mrs. C. E. Young has been on the sick list the past week and her sister, Mrs. Walter Gregg, is caring for her.

Mrs. Nelson Eastman and family have moved into C. E. Young's tenement on Deer avenue.

Miss Mildred Harvey, stenographer in the office of the Boston & Maine R. R., underwent an operation for appendicitis at Brightlook hospital on Wednesday evening.

The March meeting of the St. Johnsbury Woman's Club will be in charge of the Home Economics committee, Mrs. Sarah Hovey, chairman. The meeting will be held in Athenaeum hall at three o'clock and the speaker will be Mrs. W. L. Wasson of the U. V. M. at Burlington. Her subject will be "After College—What?" The Executive board will meet in Athenaeum hall at 2 o'clock. Every student and supporter of the St. Johnsbury Academy is expected to support the home team Friday night at the fast game to be played at the Y. M. C. A. "gym" with the Newport High basketball team.

Mrs. Oscar P. Lamoureux of Lyndonville was here on business Thursday.

Miss Sarah Brigham went to Montpelier Thursday for a few days visit.

George H., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney P. Gile, is much better at this time.

Miss Ouida Johnson is confined to the house by illness.

The funeral of Samuel Parrott, 40 years old, who died at Northampton, was held Wednesday morning at Notre Dame church. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Parrott was from St. Johnsbury and is survived by a brother and sister.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lyster March 3, at their home on Union street.

John Lanctot, who had a shock Tuesday night, remains about the same.

Mrs. Oscar Lanctot and sister, Miss Beatrice Bisson, who have been here the past two months visiting relatives left for their home in New Brunswick Wednesday.

Mrs. W. S. Masten and Mrs. Geo. S. Hickey visited Mrs. C. J. Trefron at Lyndonville Wednesday.

Mrs. Kenneth Kirk and son, Kenneth, Jr., are home from a three weeks' visit in Barre.

Mrs. William Pinkham died at her home Wednesday night at 26 Lafayette street after a long illness.

Peter Landry will be at the Corner Garage to demonstrate Ford's or tractors the rest of this week.

Dr. B. E. Doyle has purchased the Cushman property at the corner of Spring and Mt. Pleasant street and will occupy it sometime this spring.

Walter Mertz of Wayne, Pa., who with Mrs. Mertz was called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Harry M. Day, returned to his home Tuesday, Mrs. Mertz remaining to be with her mother.

M. N. Ruggles is back at the Corner Garage after being in the Pittsford Sanatorium the past five weeks.

E. H. Hallett is home from a weeks' trip to Boston.

Miss Mabel Kelley is back at her office after two weeks' illness.

Rev. Loren Webster of Holderness School, Plymouth, preached at the St. Andrew's church Wednesday night and was entertained at the home of Rev. Dr. A. P. Grint.

Mrs. Charles Bennett of St. Johnsbury Center visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Drew, Thursday.

Miss Mary Wheeler is home from New York where she has been to see her sister and children before they sailed for Bulgaria.

Miss Mildred Delaney and Miss Gladys Bielew snowshoed to St. Johnsbury Center Wednesday night and visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lee.

Miss Irma King went to her home in Passumpsic Thursday.

Mrs. Josephine Bowles is back at the office of the Leach & Waterman store after an illness of four weeks.

Harry W. Witters, in Burlington Thursday and Miss Virginia Witters went to St. Albans.

Mrs. Irving Hall and Mrs. Dean Hall of St. Johnsbury Center visited relatives here Thursday.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the South church will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. There will be important business to be done, but the meeting will be out in time for all to attend the woman's meeting by Dr. Rees.

Miss Mildred Clark is seriously ill at her home in Coreyville.

112 Millions used last year to KILL COLDS

HILL'S CASCARA QUININE BROMIDE

Standard cold remedy for 20 years—in tablet form—safe, sure, no opiates—breaks up a cold in 24 hours—relieves grip in 3 days. Money back if it fails. The genuine box has a Red top with Mr. Hill's picture.

At All Drug Stores

store after an illness of four weeks.

Harry W. Witters, in Burlington Thursday and Miss Virginia Witters went to St. Albans.

Mrs. Irving Hall and Mrs. Dean Hall of St. Johnsbury Center visited relatives here Thursday.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the South church will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. There will be important business to be done, but the meeting will be out in time for all to attend the woman's meeting by Dr. Rees.

Miss Mildred Clark is seriously ill at her home in Coreyville.

ACADEMY WINS FROM NEWPORT

HIGH 19 TO 11

St. Johnsbury Academy basketball team defeated the Newport High school five Friday night at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium by the score of 19 to 11 in a hard fought and quite evenly contested game. The Academy boys had a little better of the passing game and their familiarity with the "gym" floor was in their favor. In spite of the blizzard and poor walking a fair sized crowd witnessed the game.

May was the individual star of the Academy team. He threw five of the nine baskets scored by the local team. Foye threw three baskets and Harvey placed one.

For Newport Gardner, Hill and Skinner did the scoring. The visiting team played a hard, consistent game but the odds were against them.

The summary:

St. J. A 19 Newport High 11

Foye, lf lf Gardner

May, rf rf Hill

Streeter, c c Skinner

Moore, lg lg Seokal

Harvey, rg rg Lance

Baskets made for St. J. A. by Foye 3; May 5; Harvey 1; for Newport, Gardner 1; Hill 3; Skinner 1; Foye, St. J. A. one; Newport High one.

Referee, Morrison. Timekeeper, Steadman. Scorer, Craig.

The St. Johnsbury Girls' Academy team was defeated by Colebrook high Friday night at Colebrook. Colebrook stood three to one in the first half and the final score was six to four. The Academy team played without Miss Forrester Duke, the team's star player.

PASSUMPSIC

Mrs. E. P. Little went Tuesday to Lyndonville to care for her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Somers and family, who are sick.

Mrs. Darling of McIndoes is substituting in the frammar room here.

Mrs. Chas. Morgan went Tuesday to Danville, her brother, Arch Steele, is sick.

AUTO MOVIES BY THE CORNER GARAGE INC.

GLAD TO HEAR IT! WHATEVER YOUR LIGHTING AND STARTING SYSTEM IS WE UNDERSTAND IT

WE have the electrical appliances you need on your car. We will supply them to you and adjust them for you. We understand all of your car needs and we charge you prices that make you feel friendly towards us and your car.

PHONE 132

CORNER GARAGE INC.

W. A. WRIGHT, MGR.

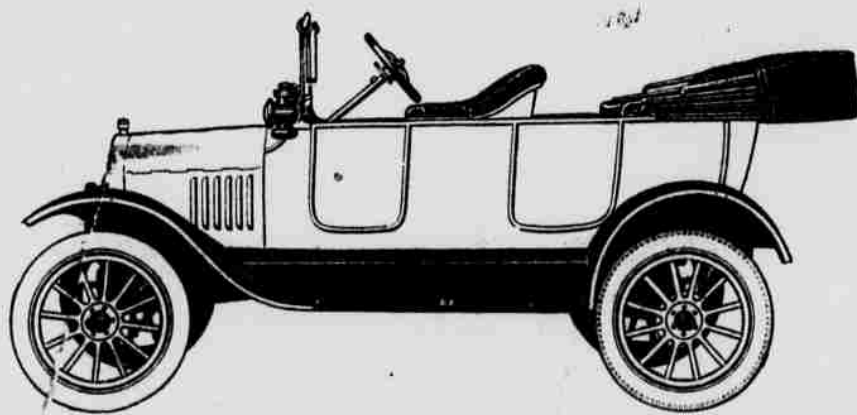

RAILROAD & PORTLAND STS. ST. JOHNSBURY, VT.

BRAND NEW

Ford Touring Car Given Away Free

BY THE
ST. JOHNSBURY POST, AMERICAN LEGION
AT THE

EASTER BALL
MONDAY, APRIL 5

BIG CONCERT
By Home Talent

SARGENT BROS.
Orchestra of Nine Pieces

At STATE ARMORY, St. Johnsbury, Vermont

Watch The Papers For Further Announcements!